Game Story

Long ago, in a time unknown to us, there existed a world called Ufouria. It was so named because only four different species inhabited its many wonderful lands. All creatures of Ufouria lived together in peace and harmony.

One day, four friends: Bop-Louie, Freeon-Leon, Shades and Gil were out on an adventure. They happened upon what appeared to be a gigantic crater. In order to get a closer look, they stepped to the edge and looked over the side where they saw a shiny object that appeared to be a crystal. All except for Bop wanted to reach down and grab it. Bop knew that going so close to the edge was too dangerous so he stood safely away from the side. Suddenly, the ground near the edge gave way under his friends and they went hurtling down into the darkness.

Worried about his friends, our hero, Bop-Louie, carefully climbs down into the crater and finds himself in a strange and unknown world and his pals are nowhere in sight. His friends have fallen into hidden pitfalls which has caused them to lose their memory.

Bop must set out to find his friends: Freeon-Leon, Shades and Gil. Once this is accomplished, he must fight them and win because their combined powers are needed to escape from this strange world full of many dangerous mazes, bizarre enemies and mystical lands. On their journey, each character will find a special weapon to help them battle the odds and find their way back to Ufouria.

Hints

Hint: In certain areas Freeon can freeze enemies into blocks of ice allowing him to walk over them and get through difficult areas in the game.

Hint: Save medicine and water of life for as long as possible for more difficult areas in the game.

Hint: One area of the game is completely dark and you will need to find a light switch to see. The light switch is located down at the very lower left corner under the first area of bricks you encounter. Use Gil's bombs to locate.

Hint: The only way to push the strange rock to block the water is by using the jump attack on top of the rock.
